

Covert Invasion

by all-round scientist Johan Oldenkamp PhD

The picture below shows the planet Mars in the background and Phobos in the foreground. Phobos orbits Mars in less than 8 hours at an altitude of 3,721 miles (or 5,989 kilometers) from the Martian surface. Its length is 16.5 miles (or 26.6 km).

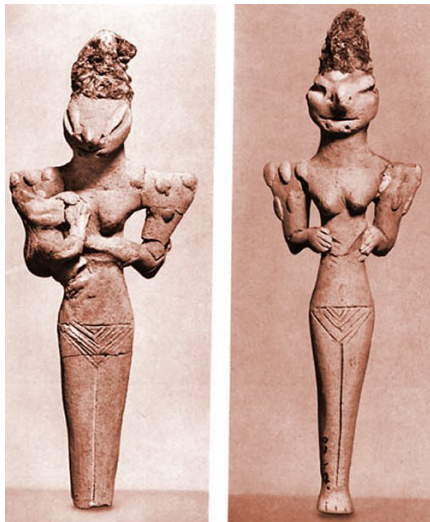

There are two main facts that support the conclusion that Phobos is not a natural moon of Mars. Firstly, no natural moon orbits at such a low altitude. Secondly, calculations revealed that at least one third of the interior of this object is hollow.

There are two main facts that support the conclusion that Phobos is not a natural moon of Mars. Firstly, no natural moon orbits at such a low altitude. Secondly, calculations revealed that at least one third of the interior of this object is hollow.

Let us therefore assume that Phobos is not a natural object. This means that Phobos is thus an artificial object. In other words, Phobos is some kind of spaceship. It might not look like the starship Enterprise from Star Trek, but it more or less resembles a small Death Star as depicted in the movies of Star Wars.

The picture to the right shows a part of the Martian surface. Both the “face” (in the middle of the up right quadrant) and the “pyramid” (at the bottom in the middle) do not appear to be natural formations. This Martian “face” is actually on top of a 1,500 foot (or over 450 meters) high construction. Even more surprisingly, this Martian face matches the face of the Great Sphinx. Furthermore, the “pyramid” with a height of more than half a mile (or about 1 km) has five faces instead of the four of the Great Pyramid on the Giza plateau near the Egyptian capital Cairo.

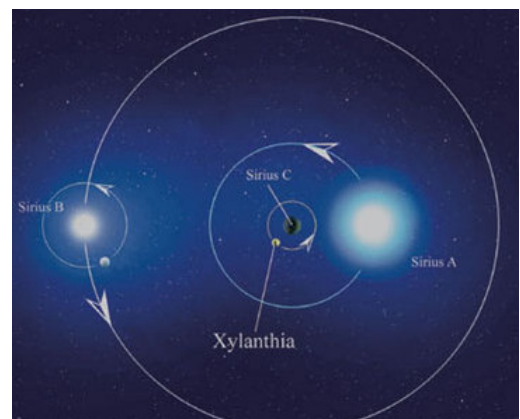

About a hundred years ago, enigmatic figurines, as shown to the left, were excavated from cemeteries in the vicinity of Ur, present-day south Iraq. They date back to the so-called Ubaid period, which lasted from about 6000 BCE to about 4000 BCE. Is it true that our home planet in those days was visited by reptilian-headed humanoids, as depicted via these figurines? Or, when we reverse this question: Why would the people from ancient Sumer and Mesopotamia created figurines of fantasy humanoids?

Let us therefore assume that it was not fantasy, and that these reptilian creatures were actually walking on the surface of our planet. Humanity in those days saw these reptilian creatures as gods that came down from the heaven above. However, seen from the perspective of the reptilian creatures, human beings were like cattle.

Written in cuneiform, the Sumerian clay tablets contain many stories concerning these reptilian creatures, called Anunnaki. The Old Testament of the Bible is based on these ancient Sumerian stories. In that biblical collection of books, these reptilian creatures are called Elohim in Hebrew. In reality, they were invaders from space. They claimed that they created human beings, but that was not the case. They were experts in genetic engineering, and they most likely reengineered the human genome.

According to Dogon tradition, human beings were created by the Nommos, who came from the planet Xylanthia close to the star Sirius. Since time immemorial, the Dogons knew all about the white dwarf star Sirius B, that passes by in front of Sirius A every 50 years. The Dogon even have a name for Sirius C in the middle, which is a black dwarf star that does not emit visible light.

The Dogon described the Nommos as amphibious creatures, looking a bit like upright walking dolphins, as depicted in the figure to the left. Perhaps are the mermaids in our fairy tales based on real creatures that once visited our planet.

The very same amphibians are also present in the historic stories of ancient Babylon, as depicted below.

In ancient Babylon, the leader of these amphibious creatures was called Oannes. Also the ancient Maya mentioned humanoid creatures that live in water. The Mayan word oaana means “one who is resident in the water”. The similarity between ‘Oannes’ from the Middle East and ‘Oaana’ from Mesoamerica is rather remarkable.

As I really want to know the true and whole history of the human race on this planet, I propose the following hypothesis (which differs from the one in my books):

Long time ago, let us say 200,000 years ago, the Dolphin People from Xylanthia visited Terra and created us human beings, exactly as described in the first chapter of the Book of Genesis. They also assisted humanity in developing a civilization. This resulted in the city of Atlantis, located a little south of Crimea. In those days, the Black Sea was much smaller, and between the lands of Greece and Turkey were only several rivers, and not a sea. The original city of Athens was a little south of Mount Athos, named Olympus in Greek mythology.

In 9,600 BCE, the region around Atlantis and Athens flooded. Both cities sank under sea level and were destroyed. Later on, Athens was rebuilt at its current location. The people of Atlantis did not flee to the west, as the people from ancient Athens did, but instead to the south. They went from the Black Sea region to the Black Land region, which they named Khemit. On that Black Land, they founded the first dynasty of what later became known as Egypt.

Not only do the Nommos or the Dolphin People originate from the Sirius solar system, so do the Anunnaki (also known as the Nephilim) or the Lizard People. However, originally, the Lizard People came from another part of the universe. Actually, the Lizard People behave like pirates. They take whatever they can get, and they do not care about minor issues like ecological balance.

At a certain point, the Dolphin People were fed up with the Lizard People, and they decided to exterminate these pirates. Unfortunately, some Lizards got away. They eventually found a hiding place on one of Tiamat’s moons in our solar system. Much later, the Dolphins discovered this hidden residence of these pirates, and this time the Dolphins did not want any Lizard to escape. That is why they decided to blow up the planet Tiamat. The asteroid belt between Mars and Jupiter is all that is now left over of this once beautiful blue planet.

The problem with the Lizards is not only that they can shapeshift, they can sometimes also take possession of the body of another being. That is why the Dolphins decided to destroy a complete planet.

Sadly for us, not all Lizards were wiped out when Tiamat was terminated. Some pirates were already on Terra. Also destroying Terra was not an option for the Dolphins. Instead, they placed all life on Terra in quarantine by creating what we later named the Van Allen Belts.

It took the Lizards some time to realize that they were trapped. At first they played gods, at first openly, and later on more and more secretly. For thousands of years, these parasitic pirates are terrorizing life on this planet. It is our job to finish what the Dolphins started. We do that by exposing their secret way of manipulating life on our planet.

At the very top of the pyramid of power are the so-called Hasidic Jews. They created the idea of a Great Israel, named Zion. They secretly control all major multinationals, all major international organizations, and probably also all national and international governments.

The Head of the Lizards that are captured on this planet chose the Hasidic Rabbis as his prime accomplices. Therefore, do not think that all believers in Judaism belong to this group of the chosen people. Not even all Zionists belong to this group. Only the leadership of the Hasidic Jews, which are the Hasidic Rabbis, belong to the group of the chosen people. The job of these Hasidic Rabbis is to control life on Terra as much as possible in order to best represent the interests of the Lizards. Most likely, the Hasidic Rabbis were chosen for this job in the year 3761 BCE, on October 6, which is the official start of the Judaic calendar.

The Nag Hammadi writings warn against these parasites. In these unaltered writings, these pirates are named Archons. As the Vatican is under control of the Hasidic Rabbis, all books in the Bible were censored. Therefore, the Archons are never mentioned in any of the books of the New Testament. And in the Old Testament, the references to the Elohim are exclusively positive.

Behind the scenes, the Hasidic Rabbis directly or indirectly run the show. Most grip they have on the media in general, and the mainstream news media, Hollywood movies productions, and the popular music industry in particular. Via the Jesuits, they also control all secret services. Due to their control, almost everything in our current reality is sham: democracy, university “science”, journalism, health care, legal system, and religions.

The good news is that they know how our reality really functions, as Wholly Science explains. Without our (silent) consent, the Hasidic Rabbis cannot do anything, as that would inevitably always backfire on them. That is why they always inform us of their hideous plans. They deliberately leak parts of these plans to the mainstream news media. They also use popular spokesmen of the alternative news media to make their plans public, assuming that most people will ignore these mad men. However, the result is that nobody can no longer say “We did not know about this”, or in German “Wir haben es nicht gewußt”.

What can we do to end this covert invasion?

1. Minimize your contribution to everything that is directly or indirectly under the control of the Hasidic Rabbis. This contribution is first of all money, but it is also time, attention and energy in general. We can refer to everything that is directly or indirectly under the control of the Hasidic Rabbis as “The System”. Thus, the first thing that we can do is Starve The System.
2. Expose The System in anyway you can. The more the true nature of The System is exposed, which originated from a pathological need for control, the more people will start to reduce their contribution to it.

Now we can fit all the pieces of the puzzle together, like for instance these pieces:

Why did Atlantis sank?

The surface of the planet Tiamat was mostly covered with water. It reflected the sunlight so strongly back to the surface of Terra, that it appeared as a second sun. After Tiamat was blown into pieces, its water became gigantic ice meteorites. The impact of a number of them on Terra caused local floods. One of these floods caused the sinking of Atlantis.

Is the moon also a spaceship?

Wholly Science refers to the sphere that orbits Terra as Luna. Just like Phobos, also Luna is partly hollow. Furthermore, a number of facts concerning Luna are too remarkable to be natural. Seen from the surface of Terra, Luna has the very same size as the sun Helios. Furthermore, Luna is always facing Terra with the same side. Next, while Luna is very gradually moving away from Terra, her rotational speed is decreasing correspondingly. That this all would be occurring by chance is completely impossible.

Is Luna “the eye in the sky”, the all-seeing eye that is depicted on the USA $1 dollar bill?

“Lucy in the Sky with Diamonds” is a title of a popular song by the Beatles. First of all, “beatles” sounds like “beetles”, but its true meaning is “beat less”. Most people think that this song was an homage to the drug LSD (lysergic acid diethylamide), as these are the three capital letters in this song title. Another, perhaps better interpretation is: Luminous City (Lucy) in the Sky with Demons, where Lucy also refers to Lucifer, the master of the Lizards.

Officially, the word “synagogue” (also spelled: synagog) means “(house of) assembly”. However, the word Syn or Sin refers to the moon, and agog means “leading to”. The synagogues therefore leads the Souls of Judaic believers to the moon. The Judaic calendar is also a moon calendar, just like the Muslim calendar. While the Islam worships the moon and Venus, Judaism worships the moon and Saturn. That is why Muslims go on Venus Day (or Friday) to the Mosque, while the Judaic believers claim that Saturn’s Day (or Saturday) is the Day of the Lord. In my latest e-book on Wholly Science, I explain much more about these misleading religions.

The main question here is: Does telling a part of the truth and intentionally not telling the rest of the truth equal lying? If so, then all religions, all governments, all university “scientists”, all mainstream reporters, all healthcare practitioners, all law enforcers, and almost all alternative news bringers and researchers are lying.

Will you help exposing these liars? If you do not want to do this for our own generation, let us then do it for future generations. If we fail to end this covert invasion, what future will then await these coming generations?
